Two Orphans Adopted

We are attempting to adopt two orphan games from the late Phil Reynold's 'zine ishkibbble. "Wide Open Spaces" is a COLONIAL DIPLOMACY game in its third turn (see p 5) and "King of Pain" is a KINGMAKER game beginning Turn 5 (see p 12). Several of the original players have declined to continue, so we have immediate openings in these games.

"Boris XVII" has concluded with a 4-way draw. The survivors and covictors are Rick Copeland, Ron Fisher, Kevin Wilson, and Rudy Zodda. Full game transcript and final position are at Reference 1.

The passing of "Boris XVII" means that it is time to begin "Boris XVIII" (for what would this 'zine be without an eponymous game herein?). Signed up are Boyum, Copeland, Fryling, and Nichols, with Curtis still iffy, so we need two or three more. All those interested in playing, please send your country preference list. Remember "No preference" really means "I want Italy" because 'tis likely no one else will want it.

IMMEDIATE GAME OPENINGS:

COL DIP: Holland and Russia available.

DIPLOMACY: All positions available.

KINGMAKER: Stafford Quarterstaffs, Knights of the Privy Pot, and Shanghai Knights available.

BORIS'S BULLETIN BOARD

THOUGHT FOR THE MONTH: "If you tell the truth, you don't have to remember anything." -- Mark Twain

NEW ON THE WEBSITE: Transcripts and maps for the orphans. ishkibbble's PBM rules for KINGMAKER. A recent issue posted as a pdf file. Outside links to two TITAN variants.

The annual BPA (Reference 2) AGE OF RENAISSANCE pbem Tourney begins 1 Jun. You must be a BPA member (full membership is $70 and includes admission to WBC, associate membership is $10) to play. Contact the GM at aorbpa2005@yahoo.com for further details. The tourney will be run using ACTS (Reference 3).

BOOS & KUDOS

The Madame Bolduc Press Excellence Award (and free issue) goes this month to to Kevin Wilson for articles in several games.

This month's Ms Nar Super-Sudsy Bomb is lobbed at Dave Anderson for delay of 'zine.

EMBASSY BEAT

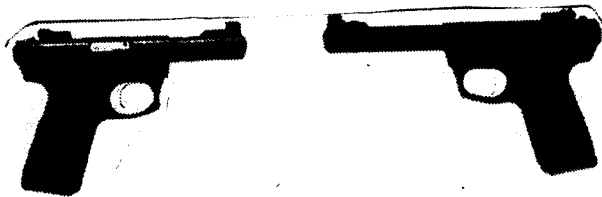

Austria to all - It seems that the warmongering Holy Roman Emperor has retired. Though his heir is now on the throne, there is some kind of parliamentary force in action giving voice to the common people, which the old soldier does not fully comprehend. Instead of crushing the rebellion, the old Emperor will acquiesce to the demands of peace and enjoy his last days hunting (and drinking beer) in his beloved Tyrolean Alps. He wishes all the remaining heads of Europe a peaceful and prosperous new era.

France to Germany: Those HWS (Hapsburg WannaBees) might get St Pete, but that's all they get. We have the line established now and they can't break it as long as we stick together and don't NMR. Don't listen to them. If you play ball with them, they'll take it away the first chance and your pitch too.

France to Italy and Austria: If one of you didn't vote the NMR then the other needs to be looking over his shoulder!

France to Austria: Isn't it about time for some of your snappy press? If the DIAS fails this one is going to get boring unless someone more creative than me starts writing a few lines now and then.

France to Italy: Ron, baby, if the DIAS failed you can kiss those Turkish vacation spots goodbye. And now you have an Austria fleet docked at Rome!?! My, aren't you the trusting type. (And one of his armies off Venice! And...)

Errata: Austrian [F LA-Dal] failed.

Ragocotti: The war may have taken a turn for the worse for the Pope and for the Sultan as Austria and France are actively cooperating. Can the two religious leaders bury their doctrinal differences and embrace a Realpolitik? With the Porte's and the Vatican's shaky home center base, they may have to. It may not be enough given the Austro-French colossal seapower advantage.

TROOP MOVEMENTS:

French F GOL retreats to PRO. Papal F ROME retreats to PAT. Turkish A AGU retreats to ANC. Turkish A ARE retreats in to g. Turkish A TYR retreats into g.

We are attempting to revive a moribund game from the defunct ishkibible published by the late Phil Reynolds. The Dutch and Russian positions are available. See the transcript on the website to see how we got to this position.

We have both Dave Anderson and Rick Copeland as standby players. As per our custom, both (and anyone else who might want to join) are asked to send their country preference between Holland and Russia and retreat orders for Russia. If only one applies, Kevin Wilson has graciously volunteered to assume the Dutch portfolio.

The Trans-Siberian Railroad and Suez Canal rules are in play and this is a short game -- 16 centers for a victory.

TROOP PLACEMENT

BRITAIN (Nichols): A Ben, A Afg, A Pun, F Kar, F GOM, F Med, F RS, F HK, F GOS, F Ma;

CHINA (Paulson): A Irk, A Mac, A Pek, A Ass, A Tib, A Kam, A Can;

TURKEY (Boyum): A Tab, A Arm, F Con, F Ang, F Rum, F Per.

Russian A ARM must retreat otb or to SYR. Russian A SEO and F MAC must retreat otb or to P.ART; if both r-P.ART, then both are eliminated.

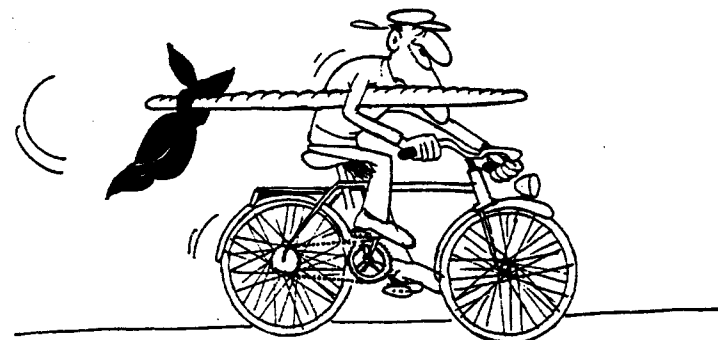

Orders in brackets fail; d = destroyed, otb = off the board, nso = not so ordered, r-??? = must retreat somewhere.

Due next time are Russian retreat orders. This will give everyone two months to negotiate and renew alliances. We will not again separate seasons for retreats and will rarely do so for adjustments. Dave and Rick can negotiate as "shadow" Dutch or Russian governments until the assignment is made. Addresses can be found on p 18. Players should also review the House Press Rules on the website.

These will be drawn at random since none of the missing players told me what they held.
